CHARGED LATEST NOVEL EDNA FERBER SLANDERS POLITICIAN

REFERENCE TO TAGGART AND GAMBLING IN BOOK CAUSE TROUBLE

By Associated Press.

New York, Sept. 2.—Tom Taggart, Democratic leader of Indiana today won his protest against the use of his name for that of a character depicted as a gambler in Edna Ferber's new novel "Show Boat."

Nelson Doubleday, vice president of the Doubleday, Page Company, publishers, said the fiction gambler's name would be changed in all subsequent editions of the novel. A $100,000 libed suit was threatened by Mr. Taggart unless the publishers deleted his name from future editions.

By Associated Press.

New York, Sept. 2.—Tom Taggart, Democratic leader of Indiana has threatened a $100,000 libed suit against Doubleday, Page & Company, publishers of Edna Ferber's novel, "Show Boat," unless three paragraphs referring to himself and gambling, are deleted from the book, the New York World says today.

More than 135,000 copies of this novel, Miss Ferber's twelfth, have been sold already. Her last novel "So Big" was awarded the Pulitizer prize as the best American novel of 1925.

The former United States Senator and owner of French Lick Springs, has demanded, says the world that three paragraphs mentioning "Tom Taggart," "West Baden," and "Roulette" be removed from all unsold copies in the hands of book dealers and from future editions.

The offending matter was printed in the August number of the Woman's Home Companion, the World says, but there is no mention of a threat against the Crowell Publishing Company, the magazine's publishers.

The World says reports of the libel suit threat were confirmed by Mr. Taggart, Tom Taggart, Jr. and Fred Van Nuys of the Indianapolis, Ind., law firm of Ralston Gales, Lairy & Van Nuys.

"It has been proved time and again," the World quotes Mr. Van Nuys as saying, "that Mr. Taggart and the French Lick Company have not a penny's interest in gambling either at West Baden or French Lick. There has been litigation on this point in which the charter of the French Lick Company was attacked on such grounds. Mr. Taggart and the Company have been acquitted in all these cases and we regard this unexplainable reference in Miss Ferber's novel as damaging and libelous. Unless Doubleday, Page & Company comply with our request immediately we will bring suit for $100,000."

At the office of Doubleday, Page & Company it was declared that nothing was known of the matter.

Miss Ferber admitted receiving a letter but said "as far as I know there is no intention at present time to stop sale of the book or to delete or amend it in any way."

METHODISTS MEET IN CONFERENCE AT FIRST METHODIST

Bishop John M. Moore of Dallas delivered the principal address at a meeting of the pastors of the Corsicana Methodist District, held at the First Methodist church here Thursday.

Bishop Moore discussed the organization of the Methodist church, its success, its purposes and its essential doctrines.

A large per cent of the pastors of the district attended as did a large number of laymen, including members of the board of stewards.

The meeting was called to order at 10 o'clock by Rev. John M. Barcus, presiding elder of the district and after the devotional exercises reports from the pastors were heard before Bishop Moore's address at 11 o'clock.

The afternoon session was devoted to round-table discussion and reports from laymen over the district. The purpose of the meeting was to better acquaint the pastors of the district with the work done and what is expected to be done during the remainder of the year, officials of tthe church said. This was not the regular district conference but a called meeting.

Rev. Paul Utley was secretary of the meeting.

Lunch was served by the Woman's Missionary Society in the dining room of the new Educational Building.

The meeting closed with the afternoon session.

Four Killed Traction Crash.

Monroe, Mich., Sept. 2.—Four persons were killed and more than a dozen injured, some seriously when two interurban passenger care came together on the Detroit United Railway line north of here this afternoon. The dead, three men and a girl, have not been identified.

Frank Denman of Greenville was here Thursday.

TORRENTIAL RAINS CAUSE INUNDATION MUCH TERRITORY

TRACTION SERVICE INTERRUPTED AND RIVERS REACH RECODR STAGE

By Associated Press.

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 2.—With a menacing flood raging through the Kickapoo creek valley, and throwing from three to five feet of water over railroad tracks, paved roads and fields ordinarily above the high water line, Peoria stood at attention today viewing devastation estimated at well over a million dollars.

No lives have been lost in the flood districts but scores of dwellings in Pottstown and other small communities are under water or swept away.

By Associated Press.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 2.—Rivers and streams swollen from a torrential rainstrom which late last night hit the central portion of Indiana threatened today to inundate thousands of acres of farm lowlands.

Precipitation within an hour before midnight was recorded at 4.51 inches in the eastern part of the state.

Traction service from Indianapolis to Tipton, Richmond, Frankfort, Crawfordsville, Terre Haute and Kokomo appeared to be hardest hit with numerous washouts of road beds and adjacent telephone and telegraph lines paralyzing service.

Lightning struck several farm buildings in the region around Kokomo and Frankfort, where the storm appeared to center.

So imminent was the danger of a flood at Cambridge City that firemen early today attempted to dynamite a dam behind which water was backing up over low farm lands.

Low-lying portions of Richmond were inundated and police and fire department officials were compelled to take a number of persons out of buildings, the foundations of which were weakened by the Whitewater river overflowing.

The stream had reached the highest level since the disastrous flood of 1913.

By Associated Press.

Akron, Ohio, Sept. 2.—The heaviest rainfall in recent years, 4.61 inches, was reported here for the last 24 hours. As a result cellars of homes and several industrial plants are flooded. Numerous washouts are reported.

Anyone desiring tickets are requested to phone 1265.

OIL FIELD WORKER SERIOUSLY INJURED HUMBLE TANK FARM

J. G. Burch, about 28 years old, was seriously injured about 11 o'clock Thursday morning at the tank farm of the Humble Oil & Refining Company near Mildred.

Burch, with other workmen, were engaged in tearing down a 55,000 barrel steel tank and fell from the scaffold, hitting the tank bottom with considerable force. The man was rendered unconscious, and sustained a number of body bruises and his right thigh was broken.

The injured man was brought to town in an ambulance and given treatment in the Navarro County Hospital. Doctors report his condition critical.

Judge H. B. Daviss and wife returned Wednesday night from Stamps, Arkansas.

SENSATIONS WERE PROMISED IN LEAHY CASE SAN ANTONIO

ATTORNEYS PREDICT CASE WILL BE ONE MOST SENSATIONAL IN HISTORY

"I don't fear a trial in Live Oak county or anywhere else in South Texas at a later date, but to go back there now would mean certain death, I know," Leahy said, from a cell in the Bexar county jail Thursday morning in his first interview given out since his arrest here Saturday.

By Associated Press.

San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 2.—Important developments in the case of Harry J. Leahy, held in the Bexar county jail on a charge of slaying Dr. J. A. Ramsey, Mathis physician, in Live Oak county last May will be forthcoming within the next 24 hours, defense attorneys promised Thursday.

An unusual legal situation will be found at the habeas corpus hearing in the Thirty-Seventh District Court Friday, James A. Harley, of defense counsel, said. He refused details.

The case, which local attorneys predict will be one of the most sensational in the history of the state, gained momentum Wednesday when a special session of the Live Oak county grand jury was impaneled. This jury was expected to report late today.

DELEGATEE FROM CANADA PROTESTS U. S. RESERVATION

By Associated Press.

Geneva, Sept. 2.—Sir George Foster of Canada, speaking before the World Court conference this afternoon, strongly attacked the American Fifth reservation as a command to the Court not to do certain things and as certain to cause interminable delays in the unctioning of the League of Nations.

He declared the world expected more of the United States and urged an appeal to the Washington government to change is attitude and not insist on something which he declared would cause inequality among nations.

By Associated Press.

Geneva, Switzerland, Sept. 2.—The opinion that the United States should have the same rights in the World ourt as members of the League of Nations Council, but no more, was voiced by many delegates at today's session of the International Conference convoked to discuss the American reservation to membership in the court.

If this opinion weights in the conference it may be impossible to accept the fifth American reservation, requiring the consent of the United States to requests for advisory opinions from the Court on questions in which she claims interest.

The reasons for this is that the law of the League of Nations is so obscure that it is uncertain whether unanimous or only majority vote is necessary when the League Council asks the Court for such opinions.

Some of the delegates held that if unanimity were made essential, the United States could not vote anyway as a party to a question at issue, while if a simple majority only were needed it would be impossible to accord the United States the right to block the decision of the majority.

L. D. Covington and wife were here today from San Antonio.

FIRST WOMAN SENATOR TEXAS IS NOMINATED

By Associated Press.

Carthage, Texas, Sept. 2.—Texas' first woman senator will be Miss Margie E. Neal of Carthage, who was declared the nominee at the second senatorial district convention here. She defeated Gary B. Sanford of Timpson.

Five counties in the district were represented in the convention. The district is composed of Panola, Gregg, Harrison, Rusk and Shelby counties. Miss Neal's majority was 2,381.

SPAIN AND BRAZIL ABSENT WHEN LEAGUE COUNCIL IS OPENED

SPAIN HAD BEEN REFUSED PERMANENT SEAT IN COUNCIL WEDNESDAY

By Associated Press.

Geneva, Sept. 2.—Spain and Brazil were absent when the forty-first council of the League of Nations convened today.

Foreign Minister Beng presided. The council disposed of various routine matters, including the reports of a number of League committees which will be forwarded to the assembly.

Spain's abstention, while expected, nevertheless caused a considerable flutter in the League lobbies. The determining cause was the action of the commission charged with reorganization of the council, which turned down Spain's demand for a permanent council seat at yesterday's session.

Senor Palacios, who represented Spain on the reorganization commission, let it be known that he was awaiting fresh instruction from Madrid as to the course to be followed.

It is understood that the Spanish foreign office is preparing some sort of statement as to the reasons for its withdrawal, which will presumably be sent to the council within the next few days.

INJUNCTION-OUSTER SUIT AGAINST CITY MANAGER IS QUASHED

By Associated Press.

Fort Worth, Sept. 2.—Charges in the injunction-ouster suit filed in district court against the city manager and council by a group of property owners went up in smoke Thursday when Judge Hal S. Lattimore sustained the city's demurrer to the allegations.

Incompetence and mismanagement were charged in the petition, naming O. E. Carr, city manager, and members of the council and alleging the latter had authorized payment of an "exorbitant" salary of $13,000 to the former.

FIRST FLIGHT OF BIG AIRSHIP SINCE SHENANDOAH LOST

SEMI-RIGID TC-5 LANDED FOR FUEL SUPPLY IN OHIO TODAY

By Associated Press.

Floating over the same territory traversed by the ill-fated Shenandoah a year ago tomorrow, the army airship TC-5, a semi-rigid ship, journeyed over Ohio today on a flight from Langley Field, Va., to Scott Field, Illinois.

It was the first inland flight by a government dirigible since the Shenandoah disaster.

Sunshine and gloomy skies alternated as the TC-5 swung along through the air. It entered the State near Belpre, after passing over Parkersburgh, W. Va., at 8:55 a. m., and journeyed over the southern half of Ohio at a good speed.

The ship passed over Athens at 10 a. m., Eastern Standard time, and was flying so low that members of the crew waved gaily to people gathered on the hilltops waiting for a glimpse of it.

The Southern Ohio hills which beheld the silver glory of the Shenandoah and then cradled its shattered hulk, formed a vantage point for many persons to see the TC-5.

But the sight of the lesser ship was denied citizens of the country where the Shenandoah crashed, for the army dirigible skirted that immediate vicinity, entering Ohio farther South.

The TC-5 passed over Washington court house att 11:05 a. m. Eastern Standard time. It made the 75 miles between Athens and Washington Courthouse in approximately an hour and fifteen minutes.

By Associated Press.

Washington Courthouse, Ohio, Sept. 2.—The army semi-dirigible TC-5, bound from Langley Field, Va., to Scott Field, Ill., landed near here at 11:15 Eastern Standard time today to refuel.

The ship had encountered no trouble at all but had simply exhausted its gasoline supply.

Members of tthe crew said the ship ran into bad weather in the early part of its flight and in buck-ting the elements used up more fuel than had been anticipated.

They said they were blown 150 miles out of their course in West Virginia and Virginia.

The unweildly airship was landed perfectly in a field a mile south of here.

The ship left here at 12:05 p. m, Eastern Standard time. It was the intention to stop at Dayton, officers said.

By Associated Press.

Dayton, Ohio, Sept. 2.—The TC-5 army dirigible landed at Wilbur Wright field here at 1:35 p. m., Eastern Standard time to refuel before proceeding on its flight to Scott Field, Belleville, Ill.

By Associated Press.

Dayton, Ohio, Sept. 2.—The army blimp TC-5 will remain at Wilbur Wright Field here tonight and proceed on her flight to Scott Field, Belleville, Ill., tomorrow morning, field officials announced at 3:30 p. m. today. She is not expected to leave before 8 a. m.

Frank Norris' Daughter to Wed.

By Associated Press.

Fort Worth, Texas, Sept. 2.—Miss Lillian Gaddy Norris, daughter of Rev. Dr. J. Frank Norris, under indictment for murder of D. E. Chipps, July 17, is to be married tomorrow to Charles Blanchard Weaver of Wheaton, Illinois.

C. P. Ferguson of Waco was here today.

GOVERNOR GETS CONTRIBUTIONS FOR ALL EXPENSE

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, Sept. 2.—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson spent $9,907.52 in her campaign for reelection, according to her expense account and that of her campaign manager, Guy Hollcomb, filed with the Secretary of State today. It was the final account.

The Governor's campaign manager listed contributions received at $11,003.50, and stated that no money was borrowed and no liabilities incurred.

FOUR CHILDREN OF ODD FELLOWS HOME ENTERTAIN CIVITANS

INTERESTING MUSICAL AND DANCING FEATURES GIVEN THURSDAY

A program put on by four children of the Odd Fellows Home, directed by W. O. Barlow, featured the noonday luncheon meet of the Corsicana Civitan Club Thursday. President W. P. Brown presided.

The club met in the banquet hall of the Y. M. C. A. Luncheon was served by the women of the First Baptist church congregation. W. O. Barlow asked the divine blessing.

The baseball team of the Civitan club met the Advertising club team in a game of the Luncheon League at Municipal Park at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

W. O. Barlow had charge of the program. G. M. Crook and Dr. J. Wilson David will have charge of the program next week, it was announced.

Harold Davidson, Nina Thranetti Elsie Dunnell and Clara Irene Lynch, children of the Odd Fellows Home, gave the program. Harold Davidson and Nina Thranett sang a duet with Mr. Barlow at the piano. Clara Irene Lynch read with Elsie Dunnell at the piano. Nina Thranett then gave an interpretation of the Charleston.

DISEASE FOLLOWS IN WAKE HURRICANE SOUTH LOUISIANA

By The Associated Press.

New Orleans, Sept. 2.—Disease raging in the wake of the tropical hurricane which raged out of the Gulf of Mexico last week already has brought fever to more than three score storm victims.

Ten definite cases of typhoid were reported at Montegut, and nearly fifty instances of undetermined fever by Father Joseph M. Coulombe, priest of the Sacred Heart Church there, who came to New Orleans seeking aid for storm sufefrers. He said 100 families in that district were cut off from their regular water supply and drinking water was carried ini bottles across the marshes. He said the air was filled with the stench of fish killed by the storm.

Bayous over which most of the travel into the section is conducted in normal times are blocked by massed sea grass and debris and dynamite has failed to clear the routes for boats.

Food was so scarce, he said, that persons were forced to subsist on crabs and fish taken from the polluted bayous.

ADDITIONAL PROOF THAT ADVERTISING PAYS DIVIDENDS

The old-time expression "it pays to advertise' 'is heard here and there and most everywhere, and the classified columns of the Daily Sun and Semi-Weekly Morning Light are getting their share of praise for the many sales they have made from time to time by just a few lines of advertising placed in these two papers that cover Corsicana and surrounding territory thoroughly.

The two latest results of a small classified ad was today when E. D. McCaver called for his minnow bucket that some one found and advertised in the Sun, the other being a small ad placed by Lyman Davis in which he advertised for sale the flagstones around the old Main Hotel property, which brought almost immediate results, F. N. Drane having bought all of the stones for his attractive country home at Arcady. There are numerous other results that could be mentioned, but space will not permit. Just a few lines of classified ads in both or either paper will put you in contact with thousands of people who immediately become acquainted with what you have for sale, what you have for rent, what you want to buy, what you have lost or found and other things.

HOT CHECK ARTIST GETS CASINGS FROM LOCAL TIRE DEALER

A new hot check artist made his presence known in Corsicana recently when he got the Hicks Rubber Company on a check drawn on the Gulf Refining Company. The check was given in payment of two automobile casings, after being endorsed by the ficticious holder.

A man bought two casings and carried them away on foot, saying his car was in a garage in the Tenth street section. The check was returned from a Houston bank marked "no account."

The check was turned over to officers with a view of tracing the swindler.

The same man is said to have passed some hot checks in Coolidge recently, and is evidently working the various towns hereabouts.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith were here from Austin today.

HEAVY DAMAGE BY FLOOD EARLY TODAY IN GALESBURG, ILL.

By Associated Press.

Galesburg, Ills., Sept. 1.—Loss conservatively estimated at between $500,000 and $1,000,000 was caused by a flood in this city today. Santa Fe and Burlington Railroads, the Burlington Paving Brick Company, lumber yards, the light and power company and water works were the chief losers.

Added to losses by these firms were Main Street merchants who suffered thousands of dollars loss through flooded basements and hundreds of property owners whose homes were neither washed away or badly damaged.

Dove Hunters Make Good Bags Early

A. A. Klein was among the early morning dove hunters to seek the game early Wednesday morning. He reported bringing back fourteen doves for the first try. One more and he would have gotten the limit for one day.

Carl Patterson was also out early and brought in the limit of fifteen doves.

MARLIN STATESMAN ADDRESSED ROTARY CLUB HERE TODAY

Explaining this to be the month in which Constitution Week appears for annual observance, Hon. Tom Connally, of Marlin, Congressman of the Eleventh Texxas District, was the principal speaker before the regular noonday luncheon of the Corsicana Rotary club Wednesday. He spoke on the American Constitution, the causes that led up to its birth, the long fight for its ratification, mentioning the valiant deeds of the states men who figured prominently in the early political history of the United States.

Mr. Connally in closing his address of thirty minute's admonished citizens to not lag in their responsibilities to the government, declaring that Constitutions are what people make them, and will not operate and function without the proper assistance of the citizenry.

The speaker reviewed the fight of the thirteen colonies against wrongs of the mother country, picturing them not as revolutionists, but fighting as loyal Englishmen for repeal of certain laws. This preceded the Continental Congress which adopted the historic Declaration of Independence July 4, 1776. The decision for the declaration of independence came following a despair of having their legal wrongs righted.

Congressman Main Speaker.

Mr. Connally was the main speaker before the Rotary Club. He was introduced by Hon. Luther A. Johnson, of Corsicana, Congressman of the Sixth District, and his colleague in the National House of Representatives.

President Wayne R. Howell presided. H. W. Regester, Robert M. Cooksey and Chris. J. Knox had charge of the program. Congressman Connally spoke in part as follows:

"In the autumn of 1777 the Articles of Confederation were adopted, and were ratified by the last one of the thirteen colonies in 1781. It was in 1787, however," the speaker went on to say, "that the Confederation was replaced by the document we have ever since known as the Constitution.

"The Confederation was found to be too loosely connected to fit the needs of the time, and to serve what was expected of it. Under its terms there was not sufficient power delegated to the central government to function with unity. Virginia and Maryland were disrupting over water rights of the Cheesapeake Bay for commercial purposes, and other matters of a public nature became items of contention. To the end that these difficulties might be overcome another convention was held and the delegates from all the States, except Rhode Island, met and formed the Constitution after four months of hard labor. Unlike the Articles of Confederation which required ratification by the entire thirteen States, the new document required the ratification of only nine to secure its adoption. Virginia and New York failed to ratify the Constitution for a number of years.

Two Political Parties Created.

"The ratification fight created two political parties, and Virginia finally ratified it by a vote of 89 to 79. James Madison led the fight in its behalf in Virginia and Alexander Hamilton did likewise in New York. Alexander Hamilton became known and was for a number of years thereafter head of the Federalist' party.

"Attending the the memorable convention were George Washington George Mason, Edmund Randolph, James Madison, Alexander Hamilton, Chas. Pickney, James Rutledge, Elbert Gerry, Benjamin Franklin, Governor Morris and many other well known statesmen of the time."

Mentioning the details of the Constitution Convention, Mr. Connally reviewed the squabble over representation, which almost disrupted and caused adjournment in disorder. Benjamin Franklin arose to the situation and proposed two Houses of Congress, in one the States would be equally represented in numbers regardless of size and in the other representation would be based on population. The question of the chief executive's tenure of service also was a hard fight, and Franklin settled the dispute by fixing a term of four years. Some delegates contended for a life term for the president.

Worked Long on Document.

"From May to September the delegates wrangled and worked, revised and re-edited the document," he said, "and finally on September 17 final adoption was made. Franklin urged the delegates to sign, and although some failed to do so, it was finally adopted by the required number of States, and has since been the fundamental law of the land, with amendments added from time to time till there are twenty.

Pleads for Public Servants.

"Do not scorn politicians and public servants just because they are in the public service," the speaker said dramatically. "No Constitution can be any more than what the wisdom and fortitude of men can make it, and it will not itself give protection to the individual against group or bloc interest without the help of the citizens," he continued.

"Wisdom and fortitude of men cannot be endowed by the Constitution, for they are the gifts of God, and in referring back to the wise and good men that have crystallized six generations of Anglo-Saxon civilization into our fundamental law, who can scorn Oliver Cromwell with his Roundheads who wrested the people's government from the hands of a tyrannical king. And I refer to Mirabeau of France who held the borders of that Republic in the interest of the people, when he said to the courier 'Go back and tell your royal master we are here in behalf of the people and will not be driven out except by the point of the bayonet,' and there was James Otis of Boston, Patrick Henry of the Virginia House of Burgesses that reincarnated the spirit of Democracy and of Liberty, aided and abetted in its foundation upon this continent."

Visitors were Richard Mays, Rufus Hardy, Roy Leeds and W. H. Norwood.

President Howell announced a Rotary-Ann picnic for some time in this month, the date to be later announced. Earl Ellis, Gene White, George F. Baum, J. A. Echols and Harrison Fendley compose the committee having the picnic in charge.

A musical feature of the program was a song led by Paul Harper with Joel Trimble at the piano. Mrs. Medford and daughter, Miss Toma, and Mr. Potter of Jimmy Berry's orchestra gave an entertainment featuring a Charleston dance.

The pogram closed with mass singing of "America."

MOTHER TAKES OWN LIFE WITH FOUR OF CHILDREN TODAY

By Associated Press.

San Francisco, Calif., Aug. 31.—Mrs. Otto Fuller today asphyxiated herself and four of her children in a two room basemen flat, after her husband, Otto Fuller, had sought vainly for employment for several days. A fifth child was saved by neighbors.

Mrs. Fuller put two of the children in one bed, and placed three more in a bed in another connecting room. She stuffed the doors and crevices in both rooms with rags and locked the windows. Then she turned on the gas in both rooms and lay down on one of the beds to die.

Neighbors smelled the escaping fumes and called the police. When they arrived four of the children were dead. Mrs. Fuller and the fifth child, Winifred, aged 11, were still alive. They were taken to a hospital where the mother died.

The Fullers were saddled with debts, neighbors said. They were unable to pay the rent on their tiny apartment. Fuller was looking for work today when the tragedy occurred.

LITTLE NEW FOUND IN SHERIFF'S RACE TRIAL ON THURSDAY

By Associated Press.

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 2.—Introduction of 32 unvoted ballots in precinct 30 Thursday featured the trial of the Dallas county sheriff's primary contest which has been dragging along since the first primary.

Counsel for Allen Seale, declared the winner on the first count, had charged that the unvoted ballots had been used to substitute Seale votes for Marshall.

When the unvoted ballots were introduced today by attorneys for Sheriff Schuyler H. Marshall, Jr., who brought the contest it was discovered that these ballots had been in custody of the county auditor's office and that they had been placed there by order of the court.

E. E. Wallace, presiding judge of the election in precinct 30, had previously testified that he had signed between 35 and 40 ballots that had not been voted. Counsel for Seale alleged that these were missing and that they had been used in substituting those voted by electors.

OLD STORY COMES TO LIGHT DALLAS KILLING TRIAL

By Associated Press.

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 2.—W. L. Ballew, 50-year-old contractor, testified Thursday in his trial on a charge of murdering Barney L. Huff, 30-year-old mechanic, that he shot Huff because the latter had alienated Mrs. Ballew's effections.

Huff was shot and killed in a downtown office here in July as he sat on the corner of a desk at which Mrs. Ballew was sitting.

TERRIBLE PAIN

Alabama Lady Tells How She Obtained Relief by Taking Cardui. Feels Fine and Enjoys Life Now, She Says.

Talladega, Ala.—Mrs. Mary Hardy, 406 Henderson Avenue, this city, says that seven years ago she "got down sick" and was unable to attend to her housework.

"I have never been so weak before or since," she says. "I had a terrible pain in my side—so sore in my side and the lower part of my body.

"Across my back ached, and I was so nervous I couldn't stand up. I had just about given up when some one who came to see me began talking about Cardui. This caused me to get it. I took about two bottles before I saw much improvement.

"After this, though, I picked up right away. I slept better at night. I was hungry, enjoyed my food, which I hadn't done for some time.

"The pain and soreness gradually left my side. I regained my strength. I took about six bottles and left off for awhile, then took two or three more. . . I feel just fine, enjoy life and can work now, too."

Cardui is purely vegetable, and contains no harmful drugs. It has helped thousands of suffering women and should help you, too. NC-166

FIVE MEN BURNED IN GAS EXPLOSION MONDAY AFTERNOON

W. R. Walford and Otis Willis, workmen for the Humphreys Oil Company, were brought to the County Hospital Monday afternoon suffering severe burns about the face and arms as a result of a gas explosion which happened in the Richland oil fields where the men were working.

Eugene Mayo, Walter Walford and Clifton Lee were also injured in the same accident. Their injuries were only slight. W. R. Walford and Willis were given first aid treatment at Richland and brought to town. Their injuries though painful are not extremely serious.

The five men were employes of the Humphreys Oil Company and were engaged in overhauling an engine inside a shack that sheltered a gas compressor. It was on the Webb lease.

As the five men worked inside the shack it is thought some one struck a match on the outside and caused the gas to ignite. The shack was destroyed by the flames.

IT DRIVES OUT WORMS.

WOMAN LOSES ARM WHEN SHOTGUN WAS EXPLODED IN CAR

By Associated Press.

Big Springs, Texas, Sept. 2.—After walking a mile with her arm practically shot off, Mrs. Eva Scott, mother of two small children, was making a brave fight for life in a hospital here Thursday.

Mrs. Scott was driving to town with her children when a shotgun in the car exploded, shattering her arm at the elbow. Unable to drive, Mrs. Scott got out of the machine and with the babies clinging to her skirts, walked a mile across a field before she could obtain aid, nearly dying from shock and loss of blood.

The arm was amputated.

Literary Forgers Are Reported Busy in England After Years.

By Associated Press.

London, Aug. 28.—Literary forgers are busy in England after a lapse of many years. A number of spurious documents, alleged to have been written by famous poets and authors but discovered by dealers to be fraudulent, have placed collectors on their guard.

Recently, a man dressed as a bricklayer, offered one collector a copy of Hone's Year Book, dated 1841, in which he claimed were notes by Charles Lamb, who once edited the publication.

"But Charles Lamb died in 1834," the collector exclaimed.

"Oh, did he, guvner?" asked the man. He then bolted from the door.

Barrett Name Still Lives.

Wilson Barrett, the celebrated English actor who was known to American playgoers 25 years ago in "The Sign of the Cross" and many other Broadway successes, died in 1903. But his name has reappeared in electric lights before the vaudeville theatre on the Strand.

The grandson of the old time actor is keeping up the stage traditions of the family. He and his sister, Helen Barrett, are both members of the "R. S. V. P." Revue and have won their way to principal roles through apprenticeship in several musical comedies and cabarets.

An extensive aerial survey is about to be undertaken in Rhodesia for the discovery of places where there are likely to be rich copper deposits. A British aviation company will do this with special aeroplanes from an aerodome now being built. They will cover about 20,000 square miles during the survey, and will photograph practically the whole of the land flown over. The absence of vegetation is one of the signs to be looked for from the air photographs as this is said to indicate the presence of copper.

Family of Golf Lovers.

Most followers of golf probably are not aware of the fact that the honorable Michael Scott, British Walker Cup player and former holder of the Australian and French amateur championships, owes much of his love for the training in the game to his father, the Earl of Eldon, who, at the age of 80, dropped dead in the streets here.

Lord Eldon, who had been a peer for 72 years, was an enthusiastic golfer from his younger days on, and kept up his devotion to, and activity in the sport to the last. The Hon. Michael is not the only one of the Earl's children to achieve fame on the links. The Earl's younger daughter, Lady Margaret Hamilton Russell, was champion woman golfer of Great Britain for three years.

The Earl's title, with his great estate of nearly 20,000 acres in Dorset, descends to his grandson, Viscount Encombe, son of the late Earl's eldest son, who died in 1900.

King George Simple Hunter.

When King George goes shooting he takes along with him a smaller retinue than other European sovereigns. The personnel is fairly extensive, however. It includes two equerries, his valet, a brusher, footman two gun loaders, an inspector of police and two chauffeurs.

Queen Mary's visits to intimate friends in their country homes always have a touch of formality. At meals the host and hostess and other guests assemble a few minutes before the time the queen enters the room, and after the meal the queen gives the signal for the women to withdraw.

All the day's arrangements, hours of meals and the names of those it is proposed to invite are submitted to the queen for approval each morning. This formality is offset by the ease with which the queen is entertained.

Fewer Pictures Hung.

One of the reasons given for the poor sale of pictures at the Royal Academy, which has just closed, is a recently growing fashion to hang only one or two small pictures in any room and to abolish them altogether from halls and stair cases.

This is not only the case in modern Mayfair flats and houses but also in country residences, where years ago the walls of practically every room, hall and staircase were almost covered with pictures.

African Chief Rises to Fame

There is a romantic story of an obscure African chief's rise to fame and his recognition by the Imperial government behind the announcement of the resignation of Sir Apolo Kagwa, the Kati Kiro, or prime minister of Uganda.

Sir Apolo Kagwa was the first African native to be given the K. C. M. G., (Knight Commander of St. Michael and St. George.) Sir Apolo is between 70 and 80 years of age and has been head of the native cabinet for 35 years. He came first into prominence about 1886 when King Mwanga of Uganda decided to destroy the Christian faith there and to begin a massacre of Christians.

Kagwa and another denounced the king. Kagwa's companion was killed but Kagwa escaped. He later took a leading part in the building of the present day Uganda, was native statesman, administrator and general, leading an army in many of the religious struggles which troubled the land. More than once he was a great power in the maintenance of the Christian faith and many times helped the laborers to transport clay for building the cathedral.

He came to England in 1902 as an official representative of Uganda at the coronation of King Edward.

PARIS

Hostility of French Toward Americans Worry Tour Leaders.

By Associated Press.

Paris, Aug. 28.—Anti-American demonstrations in Paris and hostility shown them on the Riviera and in Central France are worrying tourist conductors who are afraid that it will cause a dop in the number of Americans coming to France next year.

The head of one important agency has stated that he is returning to the United States to arrange tours in South America, the Orient and Alaska for the coming year, but that he would leave Europe and especially France out of his caluculations.

Many tourist Americans declare that they will never return.

Umbrellas in Brighter Hues.

Umbrellas are shedding their sombre black here and are becoming quite picturesque in soft blues, delicate pinks, light water green and "dawn" yellow, colors that were the rage in the Citizen Kings days.

Umbrellas are covered with taffeta and edged with a broad ribbon striped in the gayest of colors. Its handle may be a crutch of light yellow or a dog's head with a collar set with colored carbuncles or a pert little monkey with a chain.

The Louise Philippe umbrella has become a formidable rival to the "Tom Thumb" umbrella, which has become smaller than ever.

Poincare is Unafraid.

"Bah," is the only reply Premier Poincare has vouchsafed his friends who objecting to his working, unafraid, at a wide open window.

The spectacle of France's new premier and minister of finances, working away at his desk in the study of his house near the Arch of Triumph, has not a little surprised the passerby in that quarter of Paris—and has not a little alarmed the police. For the premier leaves his window wide open.

M. Poincare has never been treated tenderly in speech or print by the communists and anarchists and his friends are stressing without success the extreme imprudence of showing himself so nonchalantly as a possible target. They urge upon him either to close the blinds or if he will insist on fresh air while he works, to have at least a pair of plain clothesmen outside his house.

Bobbed Hair Not New.

Bobbed hair has been relegated to the "nothing new under the sun" class by a scientific investigator, Dr. Cabanes, who recently asked a medical paper if any precedent to this fashion was known.

Doctor Georges Petit replied that in 1796 women wore their hair cut short in memory of the victims of the reign of Terror whose hair was always cut short before their heads were placed under the guillotine. This style was then known as "the sacrificed."

The fashion did not last long then, but it was revived in 1836, when Princess Marie of Orleans, the daughter of King Louis Philippe, exhibited her statue of Joan of Arc, who is always represented with bobbed (not shingled) hair. Short hair came into vogue in honor of the royal artist and lasted for about a dozen years. It was called "Joan of Arc" style.

It was once more resurrected in the early days of the third, and existing, republic, when it was christened the "ninon style," after the celebrated Ninon de Lenclos, who wore her hair short. Her close-cut hair was on one of the brainest heads of the times.

France's Good Judge Dead.

France's "good judge" is dead. Thirty years ago nobody would have had to ask his name, everybody would have known it was Paul Magnaud, the judge of Chateu Thierry who acquired a world wide reputation by acquitting a poor woman who had stolen a loaf from a baker's window.

The judgment was long and started with many clauses beginning, "Whereas" until it reached the conclusion that it was far more reasonable to acquit a thief who had acted under the irresistible impulse of hunger than one who pleaded his pathological condition as excuse for a perfectly unnecessary theft.

Congratulations on his humane equity flowed into the judge from all parts of the world, but officially his judgment could not be accepted without protest. The public prosecutor appealed the sentence on the grounds that it was too light but so great an outcry followed both from the public and the parliament that the appeal court preferred to confirm the judgment. It has been generally said however, that the judgment prevented his being promoted from his country judgeship.

He was 78 when he died and the woman whom he acquitted is still living, a zealous, intelligent worker and esteemed by her neighbors.

FOR WORKING PEOPLE.

The best of workers get out of sorts when the liver fails to act. They feel languid, half-sick, "blue" and discouraged and think they are getting lazy. Neglect of these symptoms might result in a sick spell, therefore the sensible course is to take a dose or two of Herbine. It is just the medicine needed to purify the system and restore the vim and ambition of health. Price 60c. Sold by Inabnit Drug Co.

BERLIN

Travelers By Air in Germany Automatically Insured for $6,000.

By Associated Press.

Berlin, Aug. 28.—Every time a traveler goes up into the air on one of Germany's seventy-five airplane routes, he is automatically insured for $6,000 at the expense of "Lufthansa's," the concern which operates these routes.

Flying in Germany is regarded quite as safe as traveling by train or motor car. The insurance companies with with which the Lufthansa has contracted for the insurance of its passengers charge merely the usual accident rate without the super charge customary in the case of "extra hazardous occupations."

Wary of New Actors.

Berlin theatre owners are growing so wary of engaging new and unknown talent that the list of actors thus far booked by the leading theatres for the season 1926-27 includes almost no new names.

The only novices thus far announced is Grete Walter, whose family name at least is one to conjure with, as she is a daughter of the internationally famed musical director of the Civic Opera Bruno Walter.

League for Cat Protection.

Three hundred cat fanciers of Berlin recently organized "a league for cat breeding and cat protection." It is presideed over by Frau Professor Scheurig, who was enthusiastically applauded when she suggested that the organized lovers of cats and kittens make their bow to the world at a cat show to be held in December.

The Berlin example has already been imitated by Dresden, which organized a branch on the pattern of the Berlin organization.

Conditions Changing in Berlin.

Berlin editorial writers evince much curiosity over an advertisement by a real estate firm offering a group of apartment houses for rent in which "the rooms are small and the labor saving devices numerous." Such apartments are a novelty in Germany.

Before the war social rank was measured in part by the size and number of rooms to a flat. Because of the cheapness of servant help nobody thought of introducing labor saving devices.

The editors are astounded to find the advertisement offering electric coffee grinders, sewing machines, vacuum cleaners, laundry, equipped with electric washing machine, wringer, irons and hot water heating.

The experiment of this real estate firm will be watched with interest as the tendency is growing in republican Germany for the mistress of the house to do her own housework.

Berlin Zoo Safe From Fire.

A recent fire in the Paris Zoo has led the curators of the Berlin Zoo to assue the public that a fire is next to impossible here. Every guard and employe to whom the care of the animals is entrusted is put through a course in fire fighting and fire drills are regularly held. The zoological garden is dotted with hydrants and fire extinguishing apparatus. Whenever the main path in the gardens intersect, fire alarm boxes are placed so that the city fire department can reach the scene of a conflagration three minutes after its discovery. The firemen of the near by fire companies are taken into the gardens frequently so as to acquaint them with every nook and corner. Thee is even an electric arrangment by which the fire brigade can automatically open the gates to the garden.

Shaw Praises German Culture.

George Bernard Shaw's eulogy of German culture, expressed to Ambassador Sthamer in return for Foreign Minister Stresemann's felicitations upon Shaw's 70th birthday anniversary, is received with mingled feelings in Germany. To some readers the praise of Germany is "put on too thick" to be convincing. "Why shouldn't he praise Germany," one man of letters observed, "when he gets more royalties out of this country than of any other?"

SIMON DANIELS

LEADING ARMY FLIER DIES FROM INJURIES RECEIVED IN CRASH ON SIDE OF MOUNTAIN

By Associated Press.

Washington, Sept. 1.—Lieutenant Cyrus K. Bettis, army flier, injured in a crash in Pennsylvania last week died at Walter Reed Hospital.

Death resulted from spinal meningitis which developed after the injured flier was believed to be on his way to recovery. He was brought to Walter Reed Hospital several days ago in an ambulance airplane from Bellfonte, Pa., where his injury occurred.

Lieutenant Bettis gained outstanding prominence as a flier by winning the Pulitzer air races in 1925 at which time he set a record of 249.99 miles per hour.

Entering the army during the war, Bettis served with the American Air Corps in France and since its close partt. pated in a number of prominent army air maneuvers.

His work in the Pultizer races coupled with his record in war and peace time flying in the army resulted, in his selection as a member of the corps of fliers detailed for exhibition work at the Sesquicentennial exposition in Philadelphia. This was his last assignment.

Leaving Philadelphia August 23 in company with two other planes for Selfridge Field, Mich., he became lost in a fog and crashed into Seven Sister Mountain. He was unconscious for an hour and a half after the crash.

Unable to summon assistance or, later to attract the attention of planes sent to look for him, Bettis with one leg broken and both jaws fractured, hopped and crawled several miles through the mountainous country to a road near Bellefonte, Pa., where he was found.

He was missing for more than 43 hours during which time he was without food and had only the rain water that he caught in his hands.

With the death of Bettis both the Army and Navy have lost one of their leading fliers within a week's time. Commander John Rodgers of the Navy, who made the Hawaiian attempt, died from injuries received in a crash at Philadelphia last week and his burial at Arlington National Cemetery yesterday came at a time when Bettis' condition was taking the turn which brought death this morning.

YOUTH SHOOTS FATHER TO DEATH AT COLEMAN TO SAVE MOTHER FROM BEING BEATEN

By The Associated Press.

Coleman, Texas, Sept. 1.—On the verge of a nervous collapse D. F. Sanderson, 18, charged with the murder of his father, was under guard here Wednesday in a private home.

D. F. Sanderson, Sr., was killed yesterday in his home following the filing of a divorce suit by his wife. The son surrendered, and told officers he shot his father because the latter had beat and threatened his mother.

After the shooting the boy got in an automobile and drove down town. He met Constable Perry Bishop on the street handed the constable his gun, saying "I have killed Papa."

Sanderson was taken to the court house where he collapsed After being given a stimulant, he revived and was formally charged with murder. He was carried to the home of Mrs. Annie Stubblefield, nearby, where he was under guard today, but in a serious nervous condition.

Officers were called to the Sanderson home Monday night to quell a disturbance. The elder Sanderson was arrested and released yesterday afternoon, when a divorce citation was served on him. He returned home, and according to the son, began abusing Mrs. Sanderson when the boy said he fired two shots from an automatic pistol.

Young Sanderson's examining trial will be held tomorrow.

Sanderson's funeral was held this afternoon. He is survived by his widow and two sons and two daughters.

STATE RANGER AND AGENT CATTLE RAISERS ASSOCIATION CHARGED WITH MURDER OF MAN

By Associated Press.

Liberty, Texas, Sept. 1.—L. Peeler, special agent of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' Association, who also holds a commission as a State Ranger, was to be given an examining trial here today on a charge of murder in connection with the killing Monday of J. A. Thibodeaux, tenant farmer at Double Gum bayou, near the intersection of Liberty, Hardin and Jefferson counties. Peeler, who said he was searching for cattle thieves, declared he shot Thibodeaux after the latter had fired a bullet through his right ear.

Thibodeaux's two sons, Albert and Elton, 14 and 13 years of age, respectively, were arrested soon after their father's body was lowered into the grave here on a charge of cattle theft and will be given an examining trial later.

Peeler's version of the killing was that he had been called by cattle owners in the vicinity of Liberty to investigate the disappearance of cattle. He watched, he said from a place of concealment in the bushes near Thibodeaux's home. Monday afternoon, he told the authorities, he saw a youth driving a number of cows in the direction of the Thibodeaux home.

One of the cows he believed to be the property of Guy Freeman, a cattleman in the vicinity. A little later, Peeler recited, he heard six shots and saw a cow lying on the ground with two boys trying to butcher it.

He covered the boys, he said, with his gun and ordered them to call their father whom he believed to be hiding nearby. Thibodeaux, Peeler said, emerged from a cotton patch with a rifle. Peeler said Thibodeaux disregarded his command to surrender and shot at him. He returned the fire, he recited, and as Thibodeaux continued to stir in the grass where he had fallen, Peeler said he fired another shot into Thibodeaux's body.

Sheriff L. B. Hightower, of Liberty county, filed a murder charge against Peeler who subsequently was released to Frank Y. Dewey, cattleman.

Ray McFadden, who is working for the Community Power and Light Company at Teague, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McFadden.

WESTERN UNION DISCONTINUES GIVING TIME

Those who have been in the habit of phoning the local Western Union office for the correct time, will have to forego this service in the future, according to Miss Mary Ferguson, local manager.

This action became necessary, according to Miss Ferguson, because of the large number of calls received each day, requesting the time. It was pointed out by the manager that the local office answered the time query between 800 and 1,000 times a day, which caused a serious handicap in the handling of the business of the office.

The above rule goes into effect in Corsicana today as well as in all other Texas cities.

FORMER GOVERNOR ISSUES STATEMENT ON RECENT PRIMARY

PRIMARY TOTALS.

By Associated Press.

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 31.—Returns to the Texas Electrion Bureau at 12 noon from 248 out of 252 counties in the state including 146 complete, show the following totals for candidates in Saturday's Democratic primary election:

Governor — Ferguson, 257,040; Moody 478,720.

Attorney General—Allred, 340,216; Pollard, 349,099.

Treasurer—Ball, 262,576; Hatcher, 394,011.

Returns from 18 out of 19 counties in Eleventh District, including 12 complete:

Court of Civil Appeals—Davenport, 24,251; Hickman, 27,117.

Total vote accounted for, 735,760.

Austin, Texas, Aug. 31.—Fergusonism is not dead and the Ku Klux Klan ran true to form in the second Democratic primaries Saturday, former Governor James E. Ferguson, declared in a statement issued today. He stated that out of the 750,000 votes cast in the election 275,000 fearless and independent Democrats voted for Governor Miriam A. Ferguson; that 131,735 Democrats and 345,000 Ku Klux voted for Attorney General Dan Moody, the successful candidate.

Ferguson declared he was amused at the situation confronting Moody and said, "When Mr. Moody tries to hold Earl Mayfield, O. B. Colquitt, Tom Love, Atticus Webb, and Hiram Evans in the same bed—boy, he will be some fixer if he can put it over. We already hear the rumblings."

Ferguson's Birthday.

This is Jim Ferguson's 55th birthday anniversary and he said although he has had his fling, that he is consoled by a philosophy that tells him the worst only happens in the mind, and that though he may never run for office again that he expects to take an active part in politics in Texas, and that he has reached the point where he can be of real service to his state.

"No candidate," he said, "ever had a more loyal and devoted following than the Governor had in this last election. These 275,000 that went to the polls and voted for Governor Ferguson are without doubt the bravest and most independent aggregation of voters that ever participated in an election. It can be truthfully said that those voters were not controlled by any improper impulse or purpose. They were not members of any clique or klan, and were not instructed or ordered to vote for anybody. They just believed the way they voted and if anybody thinks that Fergusonism is dead in Texas, just let them reflect over the number of this fearless band of patriotic people who did not get any oil money, who did not take any orders from the Ku Klux Klan and who did not take any orders from the big business crowd.

Klan Runs True to Form.

"If any body tries to further deceive themselves that the Ku Klux did not run true to form in this election, just let them study the returns. In the following counties, Dallas, Bexar, El Paso, Grayson, Harris, Travis, Hunt, Potter, Hidalgo, Johnson, Bell, Jefferson, and Tarrant, Moody received 136,645 votes and Governor Ferguson 37,587.

A majority of over 99,000 votes in thirteen counties. As is well known, every one of these counties are big Klan controlled counties, with the exception only of Bexar county, and it is not denied of course, that the 9,000 majority polled against the Governor there was the result of the political boss of that town having made a coalition with the Ku Klux to vote for Moody. Every Ku Klux in San Antonio and there as at least 9,000 of them, voted for Moody.

Invisible Government.

"If Mr. Moody is finally elected, the people will have a chance to try out the virtues of the invisible Government, and no stones should be thrown in the way to give the people an economical administration of their affairs. So far as I am personally concerned, I am willing to co-operate toward the purpose of Governmental efficiency, and if the opposition wants peace, it is in their power to have it. I understand that always in political campaigns, temper and feeling run high. Many intemperate expressions are indulged in that are properly forgotten after the election, or at least, should be."

ASSASSINATION OF ALABAMA JUDGE IS CLEARED WEDNESDAY

By Associated Press.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 1.—Clyde Reece Bachelor confessed today that he made Hays Leonard, negro, kill his father-in-law, Judge Lamar Smith at Wetumka Ala., Monday night. Bachelor confessed while he and the negro were being brought here from Montgomery for safekeeping and repeated the confession in the jail.

Officials said that insurance carried by Judge Smith had been established as the definite motive for the crime. Deputy Sheriff H. P. Massingill, on his arrival with the prisoners, stated that on the trip Bachelor pointed to the plantation hand and declared "That negro fired the shot, but I made him do it."

Bachelor said he agreed to pay Leonard a sum he owed him and to give him $400 in cash if he would kill the judge.

Judge Smith was slain and his wife wounded by a shot fired through the window of their home Monday night.

SAFEGUARDING TAXPAYERS' COIN IN WASHINGTON

By Associated Press.

Washington, Aug. 31.—Another safeguard was thrown today around the tax payers' money in Washington.

Two steel plated "bullet proof," heavily armored trucks were placed in service for the transportation of currency and other valuable papers between the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and the Treasury. They will carry approximately $10,000,000 daily in currency, bonds and other securities.

The windshields are bullet-proof, while the sides have specially constructed turrents through which the guards may fire with rifles in perfect safety to themselves.

PILOT PEDLEY TO GIVE EXHIBITION AT BLOOMING GROVE

Many matters of great importance to the future greatness of Navarro county will come up for discussion at the county wide mass meeting which will be held at Blooming Grove, Friday, September 10, at 2 p. m.

Paramount among these matters will be a good roads program for Navarro county. One of the objects of the meeting is to perfect a plan whereby some arrangement, agreeable to all, may be perfected that will result in the county receiving a system of good roads.

A large crowd is expected to attend this meeting, with representative groups from every section of the county being present.

As an added attraction for the pleasure of the delegates the Daily Sun airplane, manipulated by the steady hand of Pilot Chas. Pedley, will give a free exhibition of stunt flying and just prior to the opening of the meeting two giant bombs will be exploded in mid-air, announcing the opening of the meeting.

Pilot Pedley is an aviator of vast experience and can make his airplane do stunts in the air that seem almost impossible. This exhibition of flying will be well worth the journey to Blooming Grove.

MEXICAN CONSULATE IN MANAGUA CLOSED AFTER AN ATTACK

By Associated Press.

Mexico City, Sept. 1.—The foreign office announces that the Mexican consulate in Managua, Nicaragua, has been closed in consequence of a recent demonstration there against Mexico.

Mexico severed diplomatic relations with Nicaragua and withdrew her minister some months ago on the election of Chamorro, who Mexico refused to recognize but continued to maintain a Consulate at Managua.

By Associated Press.

Mexico City, Sept. 1.—The Mexican government has replied officially to Sir Eric Drummond, Secretary-General of the League of Nations in Geneva, who recently forwarded to Mexico a note of protest by Nicaragua over an alleged free booting expedition carried out by an auxiliary Mexican warship to aid the revolutionaries overthrow the Nicaraguan government.

The reply reiterates the recent announcement by Aaron Saenez, Foreign Minister, that Mexico has nothing to do with the League of Nations and the League has nothing to do with Mexico. The reply was sent by Senor Saenz under instructions from President Calles.

"I have the honor, referring to yours on the 27th, to inform you that Mexico has not any connection whatever with the League of Nations and to thank you for your attention," the reply said.

KNOX TOOK ISSUE TODAY WITH POLICE REPORT HIS AFFAIRS

By Associated Press.

Washington, Aug. 31.—Philander Knox, Jr., son of the former Secretary of State and United States Senator from Pennsylvania, took issue today with the police report version which credited his wife, Mrs. Josephine Poole Knox, with having thrown a water glass at him early Sunday and cutting his right arm.

Knox said the real cause of his injury, which had sent him to a hospital, was a slip on the wet bath room floor, while he had a glass in his hand and was seeking a drink of water.

"There is no marital trouble at all," Knox added. "If the police say that there had been an altercation they are jumping at conclusions."

Meanwhile, the police maintained that their version of the incident is correct.

About 18 months ago Mrs. Knox left her husband and placed him "on probation." Some six months later they were reconciled. They have been married since 1917.

NEW ANGLE TO MELLETT MURDER BEING PROBED BY AUTHORITIES IN CHARGE

By Associated Press.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 31.—Investigation into the murder of Don R. Mellett, Canton, Ohio, publisher, took a new turn today says the Cleveland Plain-Dealer with the report that new evidence, which points to the murder of Patrick Eugene McDermott, missing "key man" of the investigation has been uncovered.

It was said that statements of a woman living in a town near Canton made to authorities indicated that McDermott was murdered July 28 and that his body was shipped to New York in a trunk.

The clew, uncovered it was stated through tracing McDermott's movements following the Mellett murder, led deeper into the underworld which has figured in the investigation from the start, and implicated the unknown "higher-ups" who, investigators feel, were responsible for the plot against the crusading publisher.

According to the story said to have been told by the woman, two shots were fired in a house adjoining her's on the night of July 28. Later she is said to have told authorities, a truck was driven to the house and a heavy trunk was taken to a railroad station. Investigation has revealed, it was said, that a trunk was sent to New York on that date and statements of the man living in the house in which the shots are said to have been fired that his sister went to New York and that the trunk contained her clothes have been proved untrue.

Cleveland authorities investigating McDermott's movements have redoubled their search for Mrs. Catherine Barnes, aged 41, in whose rooming house McDermott is believed to have lived as Charles Conner after the Mellett slaying.

CASE SON CHARGED KILLING OF FATHER POSTPONED TODAY

County Superintendent J. M. McClung has issued the following instructions which are printed in the program of the Institute:

The local institute for white teachers will begin at 9 o'clock, September 6, 1926, at the Corsicana High School, and will close the following Friday.

Every teacher who expects to teach in Navarro county, and all independent districts in the county, not including Corsicana, is expected to be present at the Corsicana High School Monday morning at the above mentioned time. Bring your note books, pencils, tablets, etc.

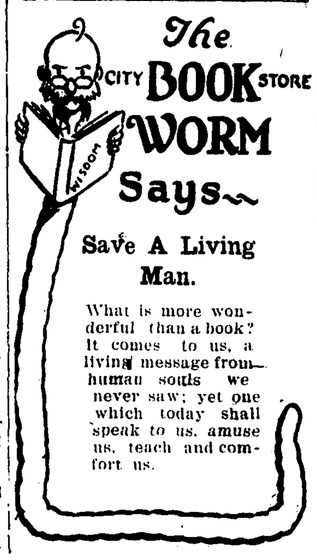

You will positively be required to keep notes of the Institute work in order to be a bona fide participant of same as required by law.

The law requires that all teachers in the public schools of Texas must attend the teachers' institute in the county in which they have written or verbal contracts, and all teachers are required to attend full five days, for which time they receive compensation as per contract for the year.

The county superintendent has the authority to excuse any teacher from attending the institute.

The certificates of the teachers who absent themselves from the institute are subject to cancellation.

Positively no teacher will be excused.

OPPOSITION COMES CANADIAN DELEGATE REGARD AMENDMENTS

By Associated Press.

Geneva, Sept. 1.—The conference of members of the Permanent Court of International Justice, summoned to discuss the reservations under which the United States is willing to become a member, was opened today.

Prof. W .J. M. Van Eysinga, Dutch member of the Court, was elected president of the conference, and immediately sketched the history of the American negotiations concerning the court.

He hailed the date upon which the United States decided to adhere to the court as one of the most memorable in history.

He paid impressive tribute to the United States as the country which had initiated the great movement of arbitration and pointed out that she had incorporated this practically in a number of agreements, notably with Great Britain.

He thought it impossible to exaggerate th importance of the American wish "to be one of us," and recalled the words of Sir Austen Chamberlain in the League Councils that it should not be difficult to give satisfaction to the United States.

On the motion of M. Rolin of Belgium, the conference adopted the first reservation, saying that American adherence to the court shall not be taken to involve any legal relations by the United States that the League of Nations or the assumption of any obligations under the Versailles treaty.

Reservations two and three also were swiftly approved. The second provides that the United States shall be permitted to participate on a basis of equality in the election of Judges of the Court by the Council and Assembly of the League. The third authorizes the United States to contribute a fair part of the court's expenses.

Opposition Develops.

Opposition to the reservation that the statutes of the court could not be amended without the consent of the Unites States cropped up rather unexpectedly. It was led by Sir George Foster of Canada, who declared this reservation would prevent members of the League, to which institution the United States has no obligation, from ever amending the court statutes without American permission. He remarked that the League members might deem some amendment necessary in the future, and he doubted the wisdom of the American inhibition.

The Canadian delegate's position was supported by M. Markovitch, former Minister of Justice of Jugoslavia. He held that if the United States merely wanted to praticipate in the proceedings for amendment there could be no opposition; but if she wanted the power of vote, the reservation was unacceptable.

The conference approved the first three of the five American reservations and then adjourned until afternoon.

Opening this afternoon's session the conference took up the fifth reservation without definitely passing judgment on the fourth. It was explained that the conferees wished clarification on points of international law involved in the latter.

Sitodrepa Panecia to Remain at City Book Store

Mr. J. C. West of the City Book Store, in an interview with a Sun reporter today stated that he had decided to keep the rare specimen of the bookworm with us and not, as formerly intended, send him to some museum.

The Sun reporter was allowed the rare privilege of seeing Mr. Sitodrepa Panecia and talking with the gentleman and assures the public that he is a most surprising and intelligent fellow and we are pleased to announce to the City of Corsicana that Mr. West is having a special home constructed for his wonderful find in which he will be kept. This box will be on display at the store. A very powerful magnifying glass will be placed so that the people of Corsicana may have the rare pelasure of seeing him as he continues to absorb choice bits from the old volume of Socrates he loves so well.

That we may all benefit by this unusual accumulation of wisdom, Mr. West has decided to put the bookworm in his advertising department. The bookworm it seems is delighted with the plan and is busily engaged collecting fragments of wisdom garnered here and there and scattered with observation of our city.

Under his own picture will appear each day in the Daily Sun a paragraph from the bookworm himself. You may see the bookworm at the City Book Store's new location next to the Daily Sun and you may read his wisdom here each night in the paper.—(Adv.)

TALKING WITH GOD FACE TO FACE

Comment on the Uniform International Sunday School Lesson for September 5, 1926.
Read Exodus 33.

WM. SOUTHERN, JR.

THE TEXT OF MEETING.

Scripture Lesson—Exodus 33.

7 An Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the Tabernacle of the congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which sought the Lord went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp.

8 And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle.

9 And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the Lord talked with Moses.

10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent door.

11 And the Lord spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp: but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

12 And Moses said unto the Lord, See, thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, shew me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight: and consider that this nation is thy people.

14 And he said, My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest.

15 And he said unto him, If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence.

16 For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? is it not in that thou goest with us? so shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

Golden Text—And the Lord spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend.—Exodus 33. 11.

In my mail recently was a letter protesting against the expenditure of a large sum of money for a church building. A local congregation had the Sunday before raised forty-five thousand dollars to complete the auditorium and put in an organ. This correspondent said that it was a sin to spend all this money just to have a beautiful church house, when it could have been used to alleviate distress and help the poor.

This seems to be a very foolish stand. No institution does more to aleviate distress and help the poor than the church. There is something inspiring in a beautiful church building, the colored and pictured windows through which the mellowed rays of the sun come, the beautiful interior, quiet and serene, built as a place of worship, brings to the soul something which can be found nowhere else. Outside there may be turmoil and pain, strife and war, but kneel at the church altar and you seem to come closer to God, your troubles disappear, or you are given strength to bear them. You leave the place of worship a better man, a better woman, than you were before you entered.

It is too bad that good religious people sometimes refuse to enter their own church because they may not like the preacher or they may not believe in the honesty of some member. The church does not belong to the preacher nor to any one member. It is my church.

Some day I hope to see the great cathedrals of Europe. Those wonderful buildings created first in the souls of inspired artists and built from the offerings of loyal people. I want to see the cathedrals at Rome and in other cities and I am sure that there will never come into my mind the thought that the money which they cost could have been expended to better advantage.

We are still building beautiful churches and I believe that those who give money for this purpose receive many times in return. They get a big dividend every time they reverently and loving enter the church which they have helped to build.

Moses had a hard time with the Hebrews. They did not respond as they should. While he was in the Mountain with God they returned to idol worship and built the golden calf. Aaron was just as guilty. Like a great many other men when cornered he had an alibi ready for Moses. Moses threw down the tablets on which were engraved the words and they were broken. Severe was the punishment inflicted on the people. The tribe of Levi from which Moses came, rallied about him.

Then Moses received the patterns of the tabernacle and a lot of statutes for the government of the people. These statutes seem queer and odd to us, almost as ridiculous as the statutes proposed in our present daw state legislatures. But there was a reason for every one. Turn to the preceeding chapters of Exodus if you would pass an hour reading of laws made for a people who knew no law and had been slaves.

Traveling and camping here and there, Moses did not immediately build a tabernacle. He built the ark in which was carried the tablets of stone, Aaron's rod and the pot of manna laid up as a memorial. At every camp he set up a rectangular tent away from the other tents of the camp. This was the Tent of Meeting. It was the House of God. In front of it stood the pillar of cloud. his was the place where Moses went to commune with God.

The people recognized the Tent of Meeting, they bowed down to the words of Moses when he had made his daily visit in the tent. God talked with Moses face to face.

This was nothing new to Moses. He was on good tepms with God. He lived for forty years in the wilderness when he took care of the sheep of his father-in-law, Jethro, and many times in the stillness of the night, looking up into the heavens at the stars, he talked with God. He talked with God in the burning bush and about it was holy ground.

It was my privilege to know one of the best men who ever lived. He had a small place and raised fruits and grapes and he loved to work in the garden and the vineyrd. It was while he was working in his vineyard that he prepared his sermons. They had the flavor of the outdoors and the nearness of God. I am satisfied that this man talked with God every day face to face. I am sure that many a time he looked at a curving grape vine and saw it burning brilliantly, yet not consumed.

What I am trying to tell you is that we may talk to God face to face. We may talk over our days affairs with him as we walk from the home to the office.

I know a man who in our Sunday School class one morning told us he talked with God every morning, told Him all about his troubles and he said "God talks to me and I listen." Some of the men in the class smiled a little. They did not understand his language.

When we meet God and talk to him there is something else needed to complete the picture. Some of us want to do all the talking and do nothing but talk. We do not stop our chatter long enough to listen. We are so full of complaints and little troubles we want God to take care of, that we never give him a chance to talk to us.

If you will listen you may hear God speaking to you. It is good to get away from people sometimes, into the mountains or by the side of some stream where man has not yet built a hydro-electric plant and look up into God's skies and listen, listen. There, did you not hear him?

Moses must have been one of the loneliest men who ever livd. Of all the thousands about him there was not one kindred spirit, not one man educated as he had been, not one who could think and talk on the same plane. For our companions we seek those of similar education, of similar traditions and training and of our own class. Few men can be companionable and at home and with everybody. I like to be with men and women who know more than I do and they are not hard to find. But Moses was not really lonely. He talked with God every morning and gave God thanks every evening and was so busy working for others every day that he did not know he was lonely.

None of us need to be lonely. No matter how wise we are our wisdom offerst us the very relief we need. We may do as Moses did, talk with God every morning, work for others all day on the march, in the home, at the office, in politics and then at night give God the thanks for the wisdom he has given and for the knowledge of how to use it.

It is a great thing to be able to talk with God face to face and to atune the soul so that you may listen while God talks to you.—The Republic Syndicate.

DELEGATES NAMED STATE CONVENTION AMERICAN LEGION

Beauford Jester, Suttle Roberts, Wayne Brown, Clarence L. Terry, Fred Seale, Dave Daniels, T. P. Hays and O. M. Boynton were appointed delegates to the State Legion convention which will be held in Amarillo September 8-9-10, at a meeting of the local Legion post Tuesday night.

Harrison Fendley, George Baum, J. A. Clark, H. W. Regester, E. C. Bowen, Fred Jeffers and Dr. J. Wilson David were named alternates.

The local post is entitled to one delegate and one alternate for each 25 members it has, and with a membership of 209 at the present time, gives the post eight delegates and eight alternates.

The Legionnaires met at the club rooms over Cunningham Bros. hardware store on Beaton street. Ice cold watermelons were served.

Action was taken on the proposition of bringing Will Rogers to Corsicana for a performance to be held here November 11. The contract was signed whereby Mr. Rogers will appear under Legion auspices for one night.

COURT HOUSE NEWS.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Two Speeders Fined.

Two men were fined by Justice Sullivan Wednesday for speeding on the public highway. Several complaints were turned into Justice Jordan's office against car owners found without proper license plates, or with one license plate missing.

A man reported to the sheriff's office he had a hot check, which evidently had been forged on the Gulf Refining company by a hot check expert.

RAPID PROGRESS BEING MADE TOWARD WRECKING BUILDING

Rapid progress is being made by artisans in tearing down the Main Hotel building, corner South Eleventh street and West Sixth avenue. The wall partitions are about torn away with only the shell of the structure standing.

Headquarters for oil fans have been moved to the Beaton Hotel, where offices have been established. The oil fans who formerly made the Main lobby headquarters for scouting and trading, are now comfortably located at the Beaton.

The outside structure of the Main Hotel will soon be razed to the ground and the lot cleared of the rubbish. Ground work on the new structure will then be started.

IMPORTANT MEETING.

There will be a very important county-wide meeting in Blooming Grove Friday, September 10, at 2 p. m. Every resident of Navarro county who has the interest of the county at heart should attend this meeting.

At the meeting preliminary plans in the interest of calling a bond issue election for the purpose of securing some hard surfaced highways in Navarro county will be discussed and perfected.

Navarro county has now reached that stage where something has to be done toward road building. The future prosperity of the county rests almost entirely on this one project. It is up to the progressive citizenship to get good roads and there should be no further delay.

The election is over and forgotten. Let's lay aside our political, religious and personal differences and get together and build for the future greatness of the country in which we live.

The Corsicana Daily Sun and Corsicana Semi-Weekly Light will go on record, right now, to support any ligitimate plan, regardless of who it is sponsored by, whereby Navarro county will receive a system of hard surfaced roads.

The people of Navarro county have evidenced, on two occasions, by substantial majorities that good roads are wanted even if the required two-thirds vote was not received.

Let's all make our plans to attend the Blooming Grove meeting and work out a good roads program for Navarro county.

ESTABLISH RECORD.

Through the co-operation of the election officials throughout the county and the officials and employes of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, the Corsicana Daily Sun was able to establish a new record in giving the public complete returns and announcing all winners in the county offices for the August run-off. At 9 o'clock Saturday night the last county box was phoned to the Sun office and at 9:15 complete totals on the forty-eight boxes were flashed on the screen. The previous record was a complete count two years ago by 9:45 p. m.

No one person is due the credit for this excellent service. Co-operation of a great number of persons made the record possible. And to all of those who aided the Sun in receiving and totaling the returns the management of the Sun wishes to express sincere thanks.

The Texas Election Bureau also functioned perfectly and before mid-night enough votes had been reported to establish the winners in all state races.

The handling of an election in Texas is a big undertaking but with the smooth running machinery of the Election Bureau aided by telephone and wire results are forthcoming in only a few hours after the polls are closed.

SALARIES OF SCREEN IDOLS.

The salaries of moving picture stars, even though the figures announced are discounted 50 per cent in tribute to press agents, are sufficiently impressive to make even the most faithful, conservative worker pause to consider in what direction his chosen trail leads. "The worker is entitled only to that which he produces," is hardly suggestive enough to combat the thought that a pretty child and a homely comedian are paid more in a year than are a dozen average men in a lifetimee. It is no wonder that fake moving picture "dramatic" studios and correspondence schools find it easy to separate the ambitious and their money.

It is well to consider at this time that the moving picture field is not the only one in which stupendous salaries have been paid, and fortunes accumulated overnight. The same conditions prevailed in the early days of oil, steel manufacture and automobile development. Fortunes went to the pioneers. Big premiums were paid to those with courage, perspicacity, or both. Unheard of salaries were given experts who dared not venture into the fields on their own account.

Certain moving picture stars who have won public favor now name their own salaries. They hardly could be expected to work for $20 a week when they have put thousands into the pockets of their employers. They accept the offers of the highest bidders.

Eventually, the industry will be stabilized as others have been. Then as now, salaries will not exceed to any great extent actual producing value.

A NEW BUILDING RECORD.

Authorities expect building construction in the United States this year to reach a value of about $5,600,000,000, establishing a record. In 1925 the total value was about $5,250,000,000, and that was a record. That means increased productive facilities, and better home accommodations.

The largest class of new building is private garages; 274,000 of them have been or are to be erected during the year, an indication that the consumption of automobiles is in a healthy state. The next largest class is that of dwellings under $10,000 in value, including farm and urban dwelling. The third class is that of other farm buildings, and 163,420 will be completed during the year. That is further proof that despite the decreasing number of farmers, the individual farm is, due to better methods and machinery, prospering. A non-paying farm is not one on which new buildings are erected.

Considering those three large classes of new construction, knowledge that the country's prosperity is not confined to any one section or group, but is widely distributed, is confirmed.

TEXARKANA, THE CITY OF POSSIBILITIES

A special edition of the Texarkana Gazette, D. W. Stevick, editor and publisher, has reached the editor's desk. Containing 112 pages of interesting data concerning Texarkana and liberal advertising patrounge the edition is a fine example of newspaper enterprise of the modern day and the people of that city should indeed feel proud they can boast such a paper as Mr. Stevick is publishing for them. Although Mr. Stevick is a newspaper man of many years experience he has only recently broke into the newspaper field in Texas. That he is a progressive and thoroughly capable publisher and editor is evidenced by the manner in which the special edition is produced and Texarkana is fortunate in having a man of his ability and progressiveness as a citizen.

Some 25,000 copies of the special edition were published and over a car load of news print was used. These papers, advertising Texarkana will be mailed to many points throughout the United States and the benefits of this constructive advertising will be felt for many years to come.

The county-wide meeting to be held in Blooming Grove September 10th, is of great importance to every citizen of Navarro county. A plan whereby Navarro county will receive a system of hard surfaced highways will be discussed. Good roads are of vital importance to this county now and there should be no further delay concerning this project. There should be a large attendance at this meeting. The future development of the county depends to a large extent on the action at the Blooming Grove meeting.

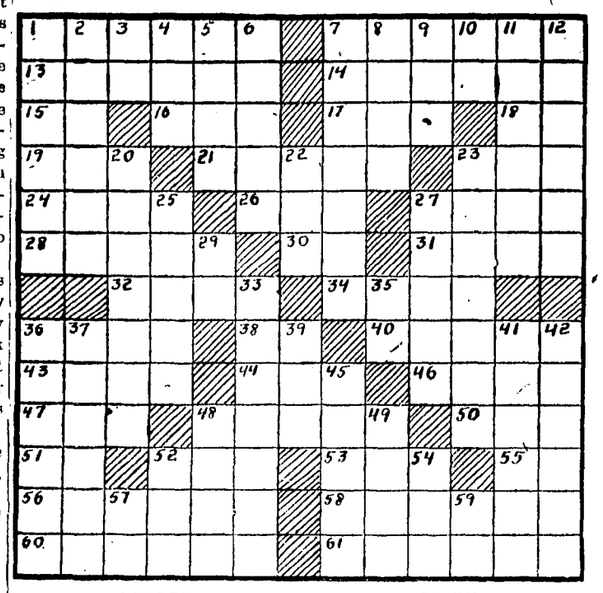

Before the wildcatter is through with Navarro county there will not be a square foot that has not been given a thorough test for oil. The drill will tell the story.

Attend the county-wide meeting at Blooming Grove September 10. The meeting is of the utmost importance to every man, woman and child in the county.

SPECIAL RATE TO DEMO CONVENTION IN SAN ANTONIO

SPECIAL CAR MAY CARRY

A special rate of $14.70 round trip via the Southern Pacific Lines to San Antonio has been secured for those desiring to attend the State Democratic Convention September 6 and 7, according to announcement Tuesday by Geo. W. Walton, county chairman. The tickets will be placed on sale September 4, and will be good for return trip until midnight of September 12.

Mr. Walton stated that if as many as thirty or thirty-five will attend from Corsicana a special car can be secured. All those who expect to attend the convention are requested to get in touch with Mr Walton at the B. & J. Sales Co., 407 North Beaton street, phone 2166, in order that he can start making arrangements to secure the special car.

There is little doubt that a large delegation from Corsicana and Navarro county will attend the convention.

The Navarro County Executive Committee will meet at the courthouse Saturday morning at 10 o'clock to officially canvass the last Saturday primary vote.

OPEN SEASON FOR DOVES SEPTEMBER 1 BIRDS ARE NUMEROUS

The open hunting season for doves will be on Wednesday and indications are the dove crop is large which will call for a number of sportsmen to be out the first day bagging a few of the game birds.

The bag limit is 15 doves a day. Hardware stores are doing a good business today for bird shot and gun rentals. Each year this section has given good sport to dove hunters for usually the doves are plentiful.

Thomas Cash Grocery Has Large Store

The Thomas Cash Grocery has consolidated its Beaton street grocery store with its Tenth street store, thereby enlarging the Tenth street store considerably and giving this district one of the largest grocery stores in the city.

The leasing of an additional store building adjoining the present Tenth street store gives this growing institution about fifty feet on Tenth street by 110 feet deep, the entire store being used for groceris, feeds stuff, and such like. The partition between the two stores has been removed and within a few days after everything has been moved this store will add much to the popularity of Tenth street, which is fast becoming one of the business streets of the city.

HICKS RUBBER CO. PRESIDENT PLEASED CORSICANA STORE

E. Hicks, vice president of the Hicks Rubber Co., visited in Corsicana Wednesday while en route to the Eastern factories. Mr. Hicks came here to congratulate the Corsicana store of the Hicks Rubber Co., which has jumped to first place among the thirty-one stores in their million dollar sales campaign. Mr. Hicks said:

"It is indeed a surprise to us that a new store as Corsicana should be leading the race; it is certainly a boost for Corsicana, as this store is in competition with Amarillo, Abilene, San Angelo, which are considered boom towns. We wish to congratulate the Corsicana store and thank the people of Corsicana and Navarro county for their splendid patronage and assure them we will endeavor to always give them lowest prices consistent with quality."

Items of Interest From Temple of Justice

Justice Fines One.

One man was fined today by Justice Sullivan for driving an automobile without number plates on it.

R. S. G. Redden and Miss Ethel Boswell, both of Dallas, aroused Justice Sullivan from his slumbers at his home about 10 o'clock Wednesday night for a marriage ceremony.

The accommodating justice arose and dressed and spoke the few dramatic words that changed the pair to one and they returned home rejoicing.

Business about the court house is extremely dull, with no courts in session, and very little routine work at this time of the year.

MEXICAN CONGRESS NOT EXPECTED PASS MODIFIED STATUTES

ENFORCEMENT OF RELIGIOUS CLAUSES MEXICAN CONSTITUTION CONTINUES

By Associated Press.

Mexico City, Sept. 2.—Coincident with the opening of Congress, to which the Catholic Episcopate is appealing in an admittedly forlorn hope for modification of the regulations for enforcing the religious clauses of the constitution, both President Calles and the Episcopate again have reitered the unalterableness of their respective positions.

Each again has charged the other with responsibility for the situation which has caused a cessation of the functioning of priests in churches throughout the country and an economic boycott which admittedly is hurting trade.

In his message to Congress which convened yesterday, President Calles said the rebellious attitude of the clergy had forced him to issue the religious regulations. He announced he intended to proceed firmly along the path he had chosen and that he was convinced a majority of the people would support him.

Only Course Open.

The Episcopate issued a statement saying congressional relief was almost doubtful but that it was appealing to the legislators to plead its cause, as the only other course was a religious war, which would be contrary to the spirit of the church.

The Episcopate announced it would present to Congress, a bill for the enactment of regulations for the religious clauses of the constitution to supplant those which President Calles promulgated. The President must approve whatever measures Congress passes, and therefore even if Congress modifies the present regulations final decision on the question rests with him.

Since the enforcement of the religious clause, the message of the President said, forty-two churches, 73 convents, and seven centers of religious propaganda had been closed and 85 foreign priests had abandoned the country for violation of the law.

Enforcement Necessary.

The message added that for sixty years the religious clauses had been in the constitution, but had not been enforced owing to revolutions and other incidents. His duty to enforce the religious laws, Calles said, had been made necessary by the hierarchy calling upon its followers to reject the constitutional provisions.

The message said there had been no persecution of creeds and that alarm was unjustified and untimely.

The Episcopate's statement says: "We believe our specific attitude, although energentic and firm, has taught a lesson to those who believe all conflicts should be settled by the use of arms and revolutions. We have give nall the world an example of how tyranny should be opposed and how to figh for liberty."

Fall Is Just Around the Corner, It Is the Time to Get Busy

Fall Is Just Around the Corner

AND EVERYBODY IS GETTING READY FOR ONE OF THE BEST FALL'S BUSINESS THE COUNTY HAS HAD FOR MANY YEARS.

With a bountiful feed crop already made, and prospects for a good cotton crop in the making, should put old Navarro County in first class condition.

Navarro County, one of the best and richest counties in Texas, is growing rapidly, and has many advantages in addition to its fertile soil and progressive farmers.

Such a good county should begin now laying plans for a complete system of cardinal highways, built of permanent construction, together with a Junior College, County Fair and other good things.

The most important of these, however, is the cardinal highways, for the sooner we get them the better it will be for all, and everybody will rejoice and be made happier.

The progressive little city of Blooming Grove has called a County Mass Meeting for September 10th at 2 o'clock at which time the problems for the upbuilding of the county will be gone into.

Everybody is cordially invited to be the guest of Blooming Grove for this big day, and a big attendance of the citizens, both men and women, will be present on this important occasion.

With the united effort of those who love their county, and want to see it continue to grow and prosper, there is no reason why we cannot make it the best in Texas.

Special Notice To Coffee Users

The first cost of your coffee does not determine its value. The question is, how many cups will a pound of coffee produce— Coffee ranges from 23 to 50 cups to the pound, family use, if ground fine, for urn, the best coffees will produce 60 cups to the pound. Adulterated coffees are not cheap at any price, the lower the price, the less cups a pound will produce, to say nothing of the difference in the flavor. For example—a coffee that retails for 40c will produce about 25 cups to the pound, whereas a coffee that retails for 60c will produce 50 cups per pound. Comparing the 40c coffee with the 60c coffee, you save 20c per pound by using the high grade coffee as it takes 2 pounds of cheap coffee to produce as much liquid as 1 pound of high grade coffee.

There is no better coffee at any price than "Royall's King of the Cup" and none that will produce more cups per pound.

MUCH INTEREEST IN MASS MEETING NEXT FRIDAY FOR COUNTY

BLOOMING GROVE BUSINESS MEN SPONSORING COUNTY-WIDE MEET

Considerable interest is being shown in the Navarro county mass meeting to be held at Blooming Grove on Friday, September 10th, at 2 o'clock, and with favorable weather it is expected that many communities will be represented, according to Frank H. Simpson and other members of the Blooming Grove committee.

It is particularly urged that as many communities as possible be represented. The principal desire of the committee in charge of the program is that the people of the county may come together as neighbors and quietly discuss the things that will make Navarro county a better place to live in and to perfect, if it seems wise, a plan for other meetings from time to time in various parts of the county to discuss progressive movements.

It is confidently believed that such contacts between the citizens of the county will go a long way toward substantial improvement in such matters as education, highways and agriculture.

If you are interested in the growth and welfare of Navarro county be sure and attend the county - wide mass meeting at Blooming Grove, September 10th at 2 o'clock.

TO THE VOTERS OF NAVARRO COUNTY:

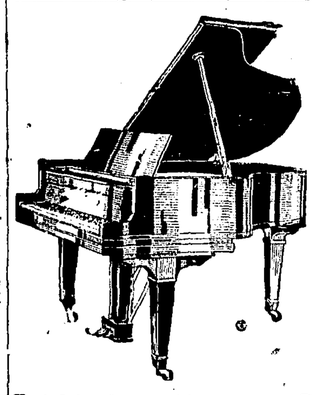

I take this method of thanking you for the splendid vote given me in last Saturday's primary.

To those who did not support me I wish to say that I hold no ill will against them.

I also wish to thank the people for the good reputation given me in the past campaign, an may God grant that I may continue to walk and act in such a manner that I will merit the confidence and esteem of all. I thank you all.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS DO NOT ASK INTERVENTION IN MEXICO BY UNITED STATES

By The Associated Press.

Paul Smith's Sept. 1.—President Coolidge was told today by James A. Flaherty, Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus, that that order does not ask intervention by the United States in Mexico.

The order, said Mr. Flaherty, who was accompanied by members of the supreme council, does not even ask the lifting of the embargo on arms shipments to Mexico. Instead, he made clear, it desires only the exercise of whatever good offices the United States can extend under international law to ameliorate conditions in the Southern Republic where Catholic churchmen are engaged in a religious dispute with President Calles.

Conditions in Mexico at this time were ascribed by Mr. Flaherty to policies of the past three American administrations.

Mr. Coolidge, who has pursued a policy of "hands off" in the religious controversy, was said to have listened "kindly and patiently" to the delegation, who were later photographed with him at the executive offices.

In a statement by Mr. Flaherty the Supreme officers endeavored to make it plain to Mr. Coolidge that "from our viewpoint the present situation in Mexico is the result of the attitude of this government as represented by previous administrations in connection with Mexican affairs, in that Mr. Calles is the successor of the Carranza and Obregon regimes and Carranza owed his position in Mexican affairs to the support and co-operation that was given to him by this government, and during the administration of Mr. Obregon this government supplied him with arms and munitions of war, including military airplanes, at the same time placing an embargo upon shipment and delivery of arms to Mexico.

"Also, for the first time in the history of this government, it permitted the transportation and passage of armed military forces of another government across American territory when it permitted the troops of Obegon to pass from Nogales to El Paso, for the purpose of suppressing a revolution.

"We are of the opinion that the conditions that exist in Mexico today result from the interference by this government in the manner indicated and but for such interference the Carranza, Obregon and Calles governments would not have existed."

DALLAS SHERIFF'S RACE CONTEST WAS FURTHER MUDDLED

By Associated Press.

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 1.—The Dallas county sheriff's contest, which has been in progress here since shortly after the July 24 primary was in further entanglements today.

The ballot box of precinct No. 30, which counsel for Allen Seale, contestee, charged contained a number of illegal votes, was opened and W. R. Dickey, election officer who numbered the ballots in that precinct, was called to the witness stand in District Court.

He was unable to say definitely whether some of the numbers on the ballots were his or were made by someone else.

The Seale forces had charged that some of the numbered but unvoted ballots had disappeared, and that many Seale votes had been thrown out and Marshall votes substituted.

Sheriff Schuyler B. Marshall, Jr., is contesting Seale's nomination. A number of the ballots which Dickey said he had not signed were votes for Seale, and a number of others which Seale's counsel charged were irregular were identified by Dickey, their own witness, as ballots which he had signed and were apparently properly voted.

Court adjourned at noon with Marshall apparently 27 votes in the lead. The original counts had given Seale a 127 majority.

The Rev. W. E. Hudnall, who was connected with mission work in Corsicana a number of years ago, now of El Dorado, Ark., is visiting in Corsicana.

CORBET PIONEER DIED LAST NIGHT, BURIED WEDNESDAY

Frank Ryan, aged about 80 years, died in the Corbet community Tuesday night and funeral services were held at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon with burial in the Marshall cemetery.

Deceased had been living in the Corbet community for the past forty years, coming to Texas from Illinois. He was a native of Pennsylvania and a veteran of the Union Army of the Civil War.

Deceased had no relatives here and the whereabouts of his relatives are unknown.

OLD HOMESTEAD OF CHARLES W. JESTER FAMILY IS BURNED

Fire of undetermined origin practically destroyed the old C. W. Jester home at the corner of Fifteenth street and Ninth avenue at 1 o'clock Tuesday morning, with a loss estimated by Rector & Davidson, present owners of the building, at $10,000. The owners carried insurance to the amount of $7,500 on the residence, which was a large two-story structure occupying half a block of ground.

The origin of the fire has not been determined, as the house was vacant, and only Monday the owners had set artisans at work making repairs and renovating the home with a view to renting same. It has been stated by those living in the vicinity that the house was frequented both day and night by many persons, some of whom used it as a place in which to play pranks on others by dressing as ghosts and making ghostly sounds, it was said.

It is also stated that there were a large number of persons at the house Monday night, there having been seen several cars parked about the house and not a few people making their way into the structure. This rumor has not been verified, however.

The house was a landmark in Corsicana, having been the family home of the late Charles W. Jester, who reared a large family therein. It was at one time considered one of the most palatial homes in this section of the State. Of recent years, however, the house has been vacant and was only recently sold by the heirs to the estate to Odis Rector and Robert Davidson, who purchased it as an investment.
